Charged With Theft.

Walter E. Meadfourd was arrested yesterday by Detective Peck, on a charge of the larceny of a quantity of wire from the Potomac Electric Power Company. Three charges were placed against the prisoner in the Police Court this morning, but the hearing in the cases was continued indefinitely by agreement between the interested parties. Meadfourd was employed by the Potomac Electric Power Company. A quantity of wire was stored by this com-pany at Cabin John Bridge, and he is said to have appropriated about 235 pounds of the wire. Most of the wire has been recovered where it had been sold.

Continued Indefinitely.

The case of Clarence Jackson and Neil Williams charged with making an assault on Michael Nolan, which was filed in the Police Court this morning, was continued indefinitely, to await the recovery of Nolan Williams was arrested yesterday by Detectives Hartigan and Baur after several days' search for him. Just how the assault on Nolan was caused is not denfiinetly known, owing to conflicting stories. It seems, however, that Jackson and Williams had an altergation and had started to throw stones at each other, when Nolan entered the scene. It is said that he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and was either under a wagon NEW CHURCH.

ENCOURAGING RESULTS.

Public School Children Contribute Over $1,100 to Playgrounds Fund.

In order to push along the movement to establish playgrounds for the children of Washington during the summer a mass meeting will be held at the Franklin School Monday night at 8 o'clock, when various playground problems will be discussed and a complete plan for the carrying out of the work made possible by the subscriptions to the expected fund will be presented. Supervisor Henry S. Curtis will preside. John B. Sleman, treasurer of the fund, has received a number of evidences of interest on the part of individuals. He reported the following checks this morning: Josephine B. Mason, $25; Richard Kingsman, $10; Kathryn K. Feloon, $7; Margaret Bayly, $2; William C. Baldwin, $15; M. Goldenberg, $10, and from John F. Sheiry.

in printing, $10. With two divisions not yet heard from the subscriptions from the public school children amounts to $1.175, a larger sum than had been anticipated by the committee. Yesterday a teacher at the Wallack School told of the efforts of Miss Yoeckel, a teacher in the fifth grade, to send a contribution. The children had saved $2.50 to spend in having a little treat on the last day of school, but they decided to go without the ice cream and help the children. The money was sent, and then Miss Yoeckel took the money out of her own purse and gave the children a better treat than they would otherwise have had.

SUIT FOR RECONVEYANCE. Land to Be Restored in Return for Mining Stock. Proceedings in equity were instituted today in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by Frederick Mertens, William M. Mertens, John H. Mertens, Henry F. Mertens and Emma J. Mertens against George Henry Proctor and George Mitchell. The court is asked to pass a decree requiring the defendant Mitchell to reconvey to the complainants 12,620 acres of timber land in the eastern end of Allegany county, Md., and that the complainants, upon the reconveyance of the lands to them, be decreed to deliver to Mitchell, or to the defendant Proctor, 13,000 shares of the capital stock of the Mitchell Mining Company.

The complainants charge that they were induced to part with their lands in exchange for the mining stock because of false statements made to them to the effect that the stock of the mining company was worth $10 a share, whereas the stock was being sold as low as $4 a share. Attorneys Birney & Woodard represent the complainants.

Sons of America. Camp No. 6. Patriotic Order Sons of America, had a large attendance at its weekly meeting Wednesday evening at 209 Pennsylvania avenue southeast. President E. Jackson was in the chair. Eulogistic remarks were made on the life and character of B. F. McFarland, past president of Camp No. 6, and district president northeast district, whose death occurred on the 19th instant after a lingering illness.

Resolutions were passed showing that the camp "has lost an honored and active member in the death of Mr. McFarland. He was genial and tactful in his work for the advancement of the order, which added materially to his success." He was called the father of Camp No. 6, it having been instituted in his home.

The camp attended his funeral in a body on Thursday evening. A committee was appointed to prepare suitable obituary resolutions to be spread on the minutes and a copy to be presented to his family.

Wife Beater Sentenced. Henson Johnson, colored, was arraigned in the Police Court before Judge Scott this morning on a charge of assault on his wife, Julia Johnson, and also on a charge of disorderly conduct. He pleaded guilty to both of the charges. A witness then took the stand. "Are you Julia Johnson?" asked the judge.

"This is me." "Tell me about your husband assaulting "Well, judge, he came home last night drunk. I had his supper on the table, and when I told him that it was ready for him he asked for his son and then commenced to curse and swear. When my son came in he looked at his father. 'You're drunk again,' he said. At this he struck my son from the table. I rushed in and told him that he ought not to hit my son, as hadn't done nothing. He ripped out an oath and then he kicked me out of the

"Is he all right when he is sober?" asked the judge.
"Yes; he's all right then. But, judge, when he's drunk he leads me a dog's life. "That will do," said his honor. Johnson said that he didn't want to say anything, when asked. "What did you kick your wife for?" the "I don't know," he said in a muttering "In the assault case, $50 or six months; in the disorderly case, $10 or thirty days," concluded his honor, as the wife beater started to the back of the dock.

Trial Postponed. Officer Cullinane of the fourth precinct station had a lively time on Canal street last evening, when trying to quiet a neighborhood row, and after much difficulty succeeded in locking up Rose Jones, who was charged with causing the disturbance. The officer was informed that Rose had been indulging in some liquor, and had tried bricks as a weapn in a hostile demonstration. "What's the trouble, Rosie?" asked the officer. - you, you can't come in my house. You have not a warrant for me."

The officer wanted her, just the same, and he started to get her, but she fought hard, and for a time successfully. Some of her friends succeeded in getting the officer's stick, and he was attacked from all side for several minutes. At the end, however,

ADDITIONAL STRUCTURE.

Washington Post to Erect Building Adjoining Present Office.

The Washington Post Company has decided to erect an addition to its present building at 1335 E street northwest, adjoining that structure on the east, and costing approximately $29,000. The addition practically will be a new building, as it will face twenty feet on E street, with a depth of 110 feet, and will conform in height, design and material to the present home of the Post. It is understood this improvement has been under contemplation for some time, as the building now occupied by the Post is too small for the proper handling of its business. The addition will be devoted to the needs of the establishment, but will contain several office rooms on the E street front. The permit for the building was issued today by Snowden Ashford, the building inspector, and it is understood that work will begin at once. Appleton P. Clark, ir., is the architect.

Foreign Affairs. Russia agreed to Japan's reported suggestion that the peace envoys meet to open negotiations August 1. M. Nelidoff, Russian ambassador to France, was chosen as one of Russia's representatives, and Marquis Ito was named to represent Japan. The czar appointed Grand Duke Nicholas the new war head of Russia. The Russian government's explanation of the emperor's speech to the zemstvo delegates indicated that the policy of repression will be more strictly enforced. Japanese troops con-tinued to drive the Russian advance rapidly northward in central Manchuria; Marquis Oyama reported a sharp action on the Kirin road June 21, a strong Russian force moving south being checked and pursued with heavy loss. Fifty persons were killed and 200 wounded during rioting in Lodz, Russian Poland, where the strike as umed general proportions, by Cossacks. The tension between France and Germany over the Moroccan situation was relieved to a degree by a conference between the French premier and the German ambassador at Paris; the French chamber of deputies upheld Premier Rouvier's refusal to make a statement regarding the negotiations. The Swedish riksdag accepted the views of King Oscar and the members of the council of state, who asked authority to treat with the Norwegian storthing for a dissolution of the union. The storthing in replying to the riksdag stated that while Norway hoped to maintain friendly relations its act of secession was final. An attempt to force a vote on the question of abrogating the union of Austria and Hungary failed in the lower house of the reichsrath. The Spanish cabinet resigned and a new ministry was formed, with Montero Rios as premier. Four American yachts, either American owned or American built, won their races at Kiel, Germany.
